

Picturesque Vancouver B.C.

Vancouver, B C.

The following views will give one some idea of the wonderful progress Vancouver has made during the last 25 years. Just compare this up to date City with what it was in say 1886, when there were only 600 people then living in Vancouver. The handsome buildings, splendid Streets, beautiful Bathing Beach, and the Wonderful Stanley Park tell of progress unsurpassed anywhere.

PUBLISHED BY
THE VALENTINE & SONS UNITED PUBLISHING COY., LIMITED,
MONTREAL - TORONTO - WINNIPEG - VANCOUVER

Canada's Golden Gate : Entrance to the Narrows

The Water Front

Court House

107.213

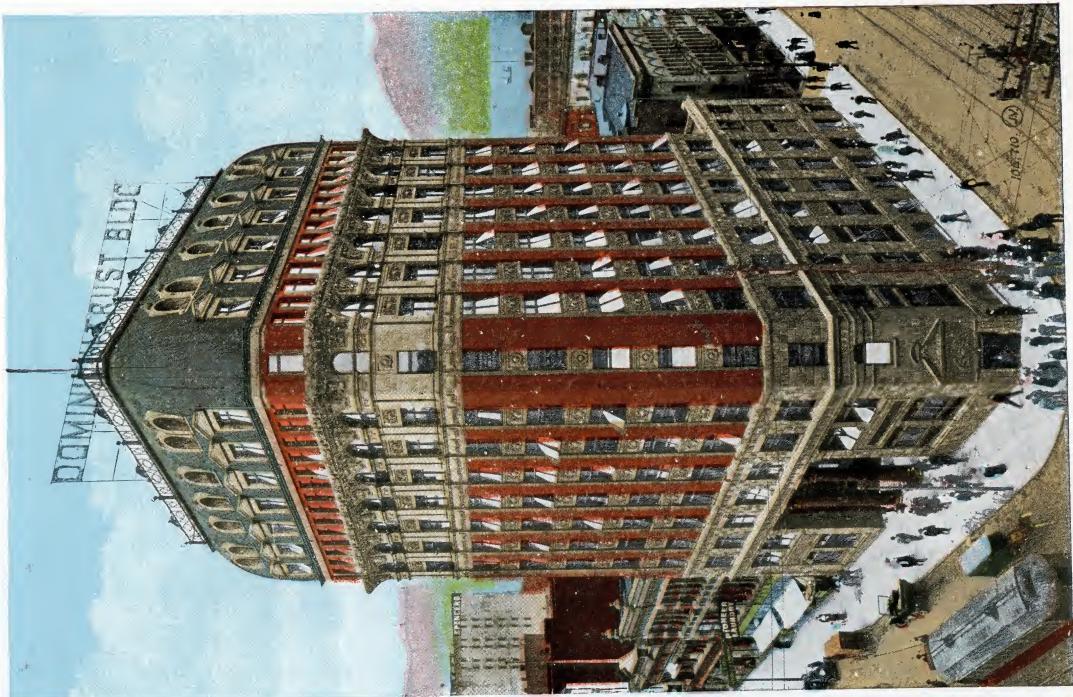

Post Office

The "Lions" from Post Office

Siwash Rock

DOMINION TRUST BUILDING

World Building : Highest Building in British Empire, Height 272 feet

*Path through Stanley Park,
Vancouver, B.C.*

Path through Stanley Park

Having his Picture taken at the Big Tree, Stanley Park, Vancouver, B.C.

108170. 20

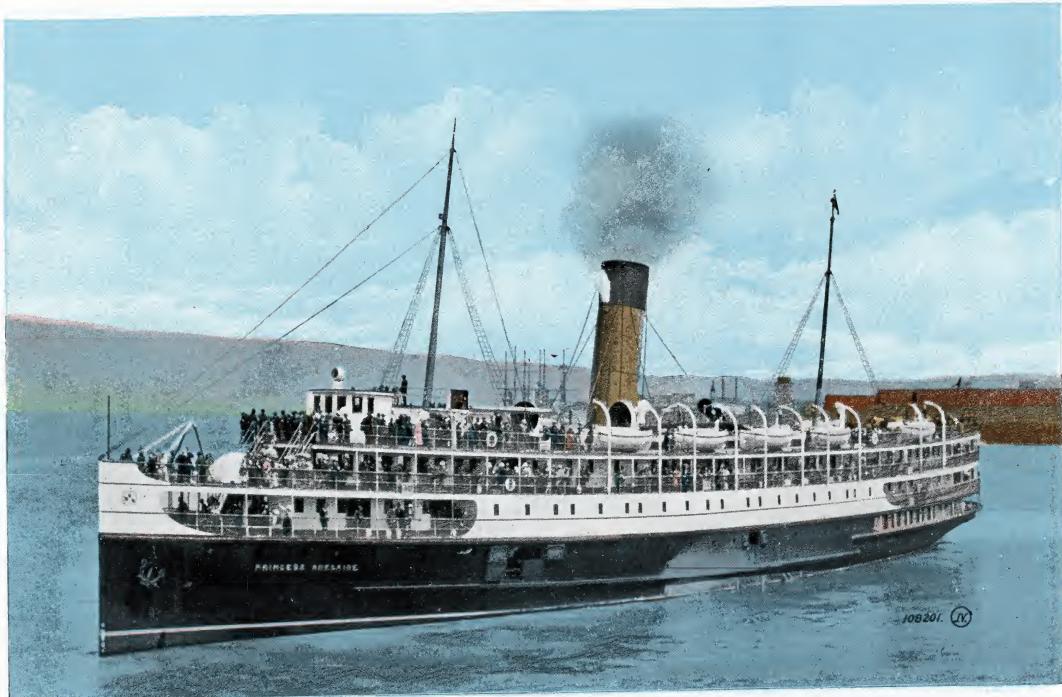

Having his Picture taken at the Big Tree, Stanley Park

Roger's Building, Corner Granville and Pender Streets

B.C. Electric Passenger Depot

C.P.R. "Princess Adelaide," Pacific Coast Service

C.P.R. S.S. "Princess Victoria," Pacific Coast Service

English Bay

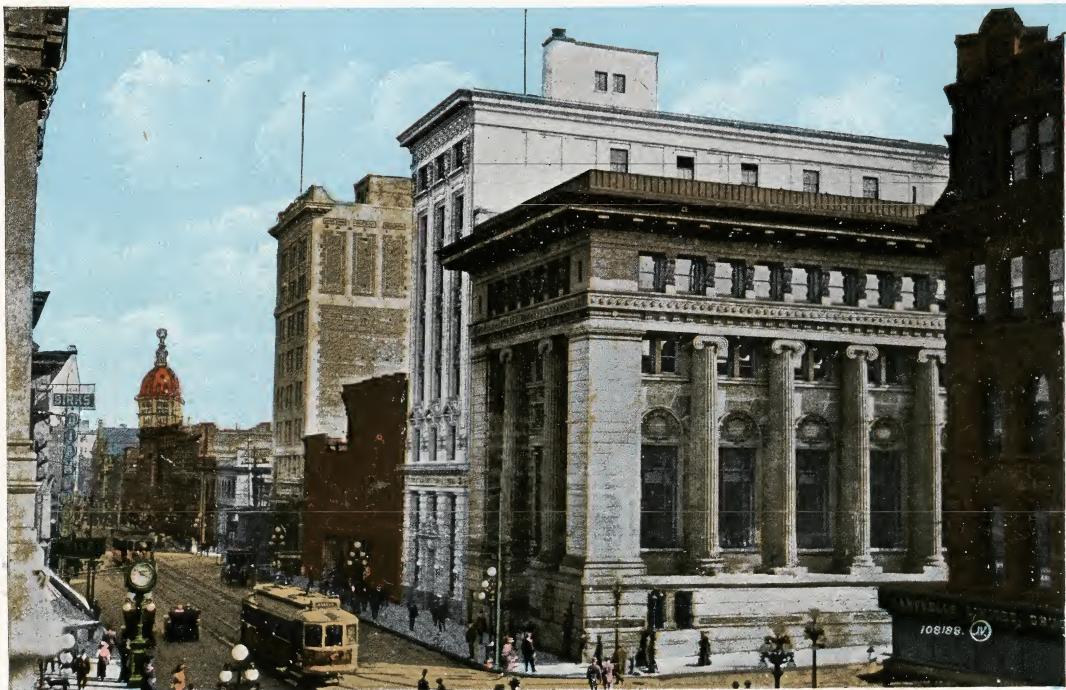

“Joe,” English Bay

Entrance to Tatlow Walk, Stanley Park

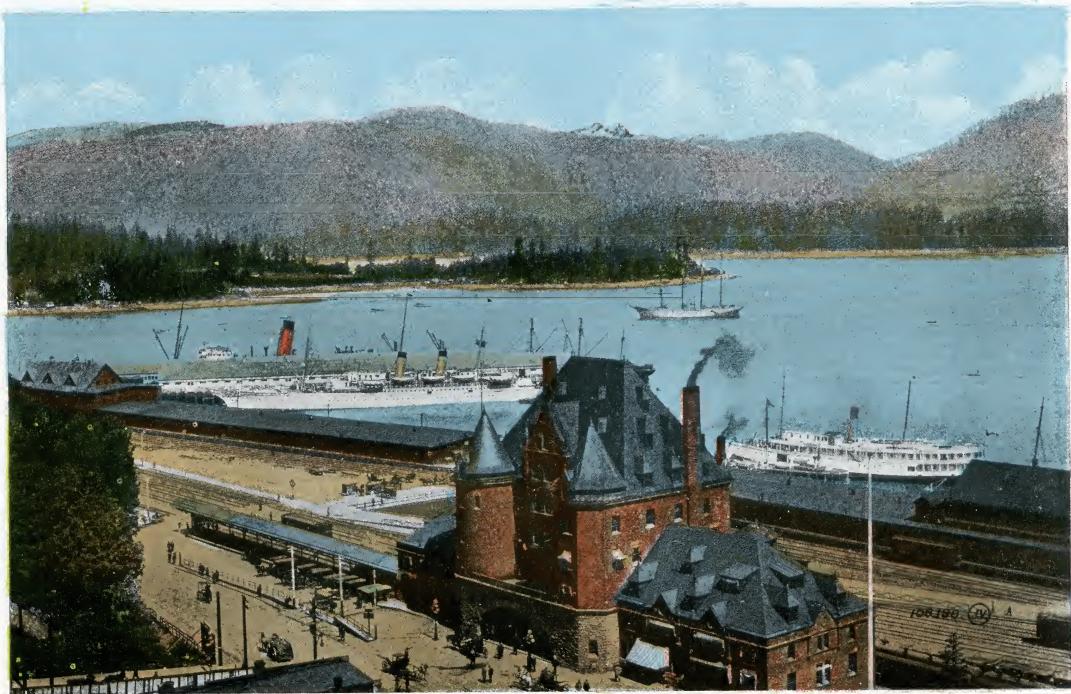

Granville Street, showing Post Office, C.P.R. Depot, and Bank of Commerce

Hastings Street East, from Granville

Yacht Racing, English Bay

C.P.R. Depot and Docks, Burrard Inlet

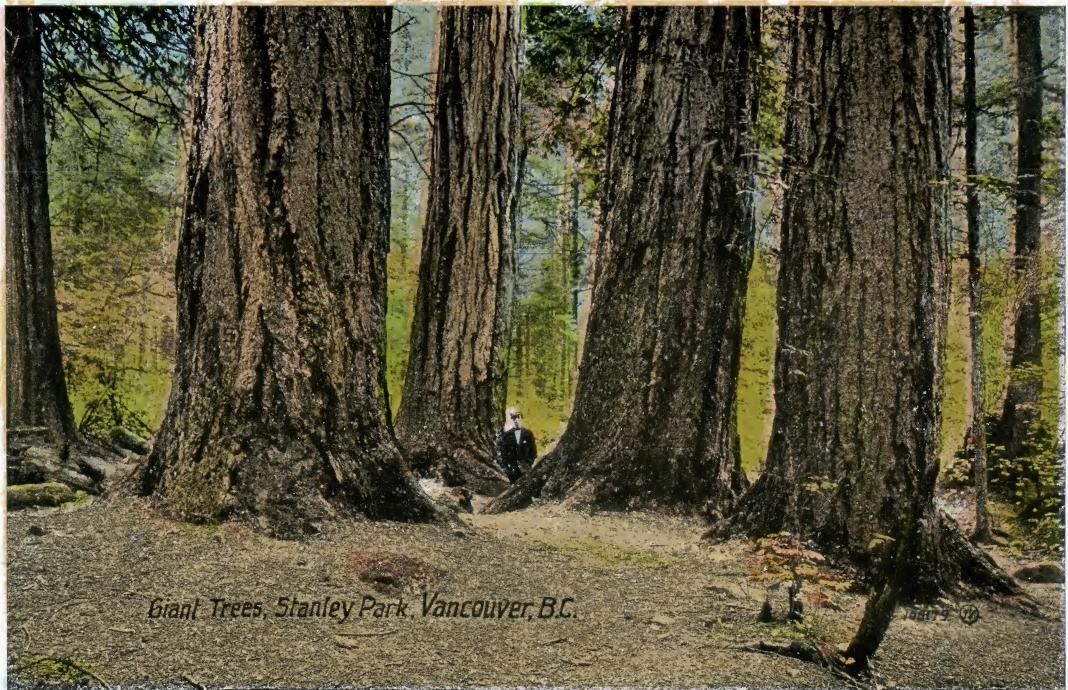

Waterspout, The Narrows

Stanley Park Reservoir and Grouse Mountain

108164. JK

Giant Trees, Stanley Park, Vancouver, B.C.

Giant Trees, Stanley Park

Watching the Bears, Stanley Park

North Vancouver

103725. (A)

Suspension Bridge, Capilano Canyon, 200 Feet High

View at Bowen Island, Howe Sound

Wigwam Inn, North Arm, Vancouver, B.C.

108197. IV

Wigwam Inn, North Arm

Indian Chiefs.

104195 (JR)

Indian Chiefs

